

Baltic Chemistry Teachers' Meeting

23.-24. October 2026 Tartu, Estonia

The aim of the meeting is to bring together chemistry teachers from the Baltic countries to share experiences and practical teaching methods that support students with different abilities and learning needs at both basic and upper secondary school levels.

Friday, 23. October

Venue: AHHAA Science Centre

Sadama 1, 51004 Tartu

The opening session and presentations will take place in the Apollo Room. Workshops will be held in the Laika and Pesa rooms.

PROGRAMME

10:00–10:30 Arrival and registration. Morning coffee.

10:30–10:40 Welcome by the Board of the Estonian Association of Chemistry Teachers

10:40–11:30 Presentation by the University of Tartu Youth Academy: “Supporting the Development of Gifted Students”

11:30–12:00 Introduction to the AHHAA Science Centre

12:00–12:45 Workshop Session I

Two different workshops will run in parallel. Registration on site.

12:45–13:30 Lunch at Café Newton

13:30–14:15 Workshop Session II

Two different workshops will run in parallel. Registration on site.

14:15–15:00 Workshop Session III

Two different workshops will run in parallel. Registration on site.

15:00–15:30 AHHA Science Theatre: “Chemistry of Fire”

16:15–18:00 Group visit to A. Le Coq Beer World and an introduction to the brewing process

19:00–21:00 Festive gathering at the University of Tartu Café (Balcony Hall)

Saturday, 24. October

Venues:

Tartu Tamme Gümnaasium

Nooruse 9, 50411 Tartu

University of Tartu Chemicum

Ravila 14a, 50411 Tartu

PROGRAMME

09:30–10:15 Introduction to Tartu Tamme Gümnaasium and a guided tour of the school

10:15–11:15 Round-table discussion: “Challenges and Development Opportunities in Chemistry Education”

11:15–12:45 Practical workshops by the University of Tartu Research Laboratory

Two different workshops will run in parallel. Registration on site.

The workshops will take place at the University of Tartu Chemicum.

12:45–13:30 Lunch

13:30–13:45 Closing session and summary of the meeting

The organiser reserves the right to make changes to the programme if necessary.